

National Capital Region (NCR) Urban Areas Security Initiative (UASI)

Homeland Security Grant Program: What's New in FY2009

I. UASI Award Targets

A. Risk-based award amounts are announced up-front. Applicants may receive between 90%-110% of that "target amount" depending on the application's effectiveness score.

- NCR UASI FY2009 Target Amount: $58,006,500
- Potential Range of Award: $52.2M - $63.8M

B. $15.2 Million must be allocated to Law Enforcement Terrorism Prevention (LETP) activities

C. 25% (approximately $14.5M) must be allocated to strengthening Preparedness Planning (planning, training, exercises)

II. Milestones and Deadlines

» » FY09 NCR UASI Application Due to DHS on 20 March 2009 « «

Proposed Timeline

- 21 November 2008: SPG/CAO Meeting to include discussion and finalization of high-level FY09 priorities
- 2 December 2008: Submission of concept papers for maintenance and continuation projects
- 19 December 2008: Submission of new-project concept papers
- 2 February 2009: Dissemination of draft NCR UASI FY09 Application to SPG/CAO members
- 9 March 2009: Completion of final draft of NCR UASI FY09 Application
- 20 March 2009: Deadline for submission of NCR UASI FY09 Application to U.S. Department of Homeland Security